

The Great Question . . .

The great question which arises in the mind of every person who reads the following is: "What is the meaning of the word 'Great'?"

It is a question which has been asked by many philosophers and statesmen.

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

— The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

(Continued)

PROFESSOR THOMPSON

The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."

The meaning of the word 'Great' is: "That which is great."